Willkommen to The Crankpot Chronicle! All Zee news and Zee notices from Crankpot Industries! If I can remember what Zay are!

Crankpot Industries

Our new website went live this week. Professor Crankpot and Olive Stein have been very impressed by the work our scientists have been doing. The website will continue to grow over the next few weeks!

Y5/6 walking to school.

Please note that from Monday 25th November children in years 5 and 6 will not be permitted to walk home alone unless a permission form has been returned to school. If you can no longer find the form that was sent home, replacements are available from the office.

School Meals

Please can we remind you that all non free school meals require payment. Please ensure that the payment is in a named purse, wallet or envelope with your child's name, class and amount enclosed. Thank you.

Photographs

Photographs have now been collected and returned for processing.

Attendance

The LAB with the highest attendance last week was LAB3 with 100%, and Crankpot Industries' attendance was 97%.

Rainbow Lunch

The following scientists all had lunch in Rainbow Station: Olivia Ballance, Nathan Gradwell, Millie Thornton, Charlie Cox, Caitlyn Archer, Katie Agnew, David Mitchell, Kain O'Brien and Matthew Dodds. These children were chosen because they had been spotted behaving particularly well last week.

Vouchers

Please keep sending your Box Top vouchers in. Thank you.

Scientist of the Week!

These scientists were 'Scientists of the Week' last week: Charlie Cox, Chelsea Davison, Kayla Rowlands, Demmi Havenhand, Chloe Crosby, Andrew Dodds, Charlie Storey, Josie Blackwood, Conner Dodds, Evan Reed, Megan Philpot and Jessica Hall. These scientists were rewarded for their outstanding work last week.

Today in Science!

1877, Thomas Edison announced his invention of his "talking machine" - the tin-foil cylinder recorder that preceded the phonograph.

Library

Please come long to our library every Wednesday 3.00pm until 4.00pm for you to browse with your child and take some books home to read with your child or yourself.
